

Asired servicios telemáticos

Company forward.

Así-Red Servicios Telemáticos, S.L.L.

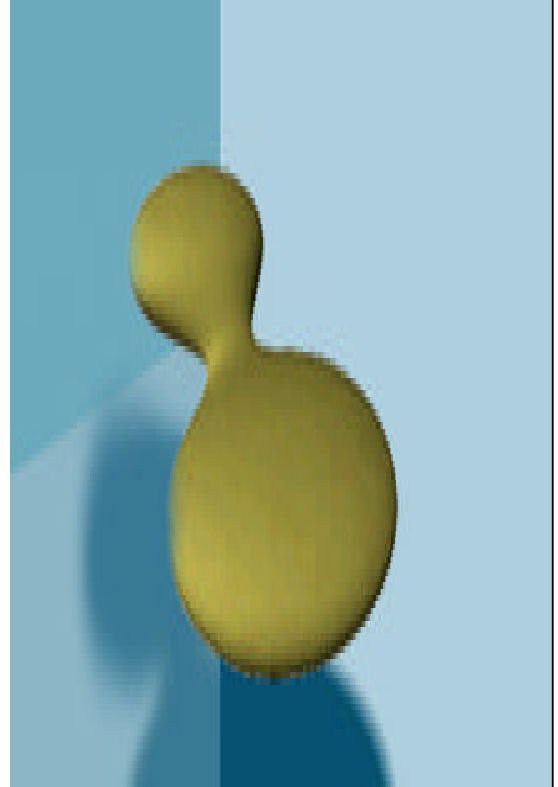

asired is a software development enterprise that operates from its Vigo office in North West Spain and its focused on internet and intranet projects, user interface design, system integration and project management for the internet.

Main activities lines are:

- XML Middleware's for system integration in distributed hardware and software architectures and real time systems.
- Business Intelligence, e-procurement and project management software.
- Consultancy for IT projects.
- Web services development in both J2EE and ASP.NET technology.

Main projects developed:

- Implementation of GPRS System from submarine buoys, extracting data to a Java web platform for data and graphic representation of different parameters.
- Specific Software for the control of hydroelectric centrals.
- SIGONET platform, included in the Innovation Relay Centres (IRC), this product let builders and contractors centralise communications and supply everyone involved with the project management with a direct line.
- Development of data-warehouse and data-mining architectures including e-billing and client support software for telecommunications firms.
- Software for project management in scattered geographic locations trough PDA Software.
- breogan.com, the e-procurement platform developed by asired.

Fields of Expertise:

- Software development
- Software engineering
- Software tools
- Software quality & product assurance
- Consultancy on project management, training

Do not esitate to contact us:

asired™

Así-Red Servicios Telemáticos, S.L.L.

C/ Progreso, 36, 3ºB 36202 Vigo

Tel: 986 44 34 91 Fax. 986 44 32 94

www.asired.es